Orville Wright

By: Charlie Fallener

"An airplane stays up because it has no time to fall." That is a famous quote from Orville Wright.

Wright was famous for being the first person to fly an airplane.

Wright was born on August 19, 1871 in Dayton, Ohio, and died on January 30, 1948 in Dayton, Ohio.

There are so many interesting facts about Orville Wright. When he was young he was mischievous and curious, he also loved kites. When he was young his mother died of tuberculosis. The siblings mostly took care of each other. Orville had 6 siblings! Those are a few interesting facts about Orville Wright!

Orville Wright is most famous because he flew the first airplane. Wright found out that birds tilted their wings to turn, he added that to his planes, and made it a lot safer. That is why Orville Wright is most famous.

There are many more fun facts about Orville Wright. Did you know that Wright flew at age 32 in Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, on Dec. 17. Before Wright started to fly planes he and his brother (Wilbur (who also flew)) owned a bike shop, Wright Bicycles. Those are a few more interesting facts about Orville Wright.

Orville Wright was the first person to fly on airplane.

Orville flew over 100 times in his lifetime! The first plane he built and flew was the Wright Flyer.
I chose to research and portray Orville Wright because I love planes, and kites, like he did.

Orville Wright

Hello, my name is Orville Wright. I am famous for flying the first airplane. Did you know that my mother died of tuberculosis when I was young? Excuse me, Got to go or I'll miss my flight! Bye!
