

Wax Museum Reflections

February 15, 2013

"The Wax Museum took about a month to get together, but we got it done. This boy kept pressing my button so I just pretended I was broken. I will never forget the Wax Museum. But, it was hard to say the same speech over and over again. I loved the Wax Museum." Race Bettich (Neil Armstrong)

"I loved the Wax Museum. I had about 25 kids that came by. I liked the Wax Museum because it was my first time doing it. I also liked the Wax Museum because it was nice to see everyone's costumes. It was very cool!" Gabby Conway (Clara Barton)

"I think the Wax Museum was so much fun that I think I could do it everyday. The Wax Museum was a big experience for everybody and me. I had fun telling about Muhammad Ali. At first I was very nervous, but I got used to it." Scott Cullison

"The Wax Museum was so awesome! I wish it could go on forever. Andreas and Zach (Teddy Roosevelt and Harry Houdini) were sitting next to me. A first grader pressed Andreas's button and walked right past me and pressed Zach's button." Gavin DeHaven (Wilbur Wright)

"The Wax Museum was awesome! My sister hit my button and I started my speech. It was awesome to see my sister. I even saw my Mom, brother, and grandma. There was this boy that touched my button and ran off. That was rude, but I still had a good time. Whenever somebody touched my button and the speech was over they would say nice job. And that was awesome. I will never every forget today." Wes Deja (Buzz Aldrin)

“It was very, very NIFTY!! I wish it wasn’t over. I could do the Wax Museum over and over and over. Millions of people pushed my button.” Tess Foster (Kate Middleton)

“It was scary but fun. It was not what I was expecting. I had a fun experience. People told me it was great.” Allie Gaipa (Amelia Earhart)

“An adult kept on swirling his finger up, down, round, round, round, and I felt like I was going to explode until he pressed my button. I had about thirty, forty, and maybe even fifty people come press including adults and my mother pressed it twice and my father did it once. My mother when she came the second time I asked her why she pressed it again and she said she could press it 1,000,000 times!” Brian Henson (Alexander Graham Bell)

“What I loved about the Wax Museum is that I got so many people to touch my button for me to talk. I also loved that they liked who I was. That was pretty cool. I do not like that we have to be done. This is very, very sad. I wish we had more. I LOVED THE WAX MUSEUM!” Austin Hoss (Walt Disney)

“I got 13 compliments. I loved the Wax Museum. It was so much fun. I love school. I thought the Wax Museum was great. It was so unique.” Ethan Jones (Abraham Lincoln)

"I think the best part of the Wax Museum is that I can teach the kids, but also inspire them and see their smiles. I also like that I could dress up as someone else. It was really fun!" Grace Morris (Jane Goodall)

"I had a wonderful time at the Wax Museum. Once this kid came and pushed my button three times! So this is what I said: "Go Go Go Good Day!" It was funny! Another woman came by and she read my quote and said it was beautiful. That made my day. I even think that 75 people pushed my button. The Wax Museum was one of the best times in my life." Sam Moyle (Harriet Tubman)

"I had the best day of my life!! All of the people said I did a great job! The Wax Museum was awesome!!! It was sooo fun! I was Pocahontas. Millions of people pushed my button." Tori Peddie

"A kid stepped on my toe. Everybody loved me. It was awesome. I thought it was so different. I was Oli Kirk Christiansen. I love legos. There were 263 people that pushed my button. My family loved it a lot. It was the best day Ever!" Luke Ring

The Wax Museum was fun, tiring, weird, silly, I laughed and smiled. It was great! Some pushed my button. It was fun but now that it is over I am sooooo sad!!" Zach Ross (Harry Houdini)

"A bunch of people pressed my button 20 times, it was kind of aggravating. I am sad the museum is over." Joe Taylor (Thomas Edison)

“The Wax Museum was cool because the people liked my speech. I told 39 kids in the gym. It took a long time. I was tired.” Andy Webb (George Washington)

“I loved the Wax Museum! It was so fun playing Betsy Ross. I am always going to remember me playing her! I am never going to forget the Wax Museum.” Ella Titcomb

“Wow! The Wax Museum is an event I will never forget! I had a great time being Princess Diana. Beside me were Tess as Kate Middleton and Scott as Muhammad Ali. I can tell you a lot of people and kids pressed my button. When they pressed my button I said: “Only do what your heart tells you! My name is Princess Diana. I am most famous for marrying Prince Charles of England. Later, I became The People’s Princess for being so kind and caring. Sorry, but I have to get back to my royal duties. Cheerio!” That is what I said. I sat in a red chair. Beside me was a coffee table.” Fernanda Vallejo

“The Wax Museum was Awesome! I was Florence Nightingale. I would guess around 100 people pushed my button! I will never forget that moment.” Elizabeth Waide
